YESTERDAY an Associated Press dispatch was sent out from Milwaukee that Wisconsin would send a delegation to the Chicago convention, and that Cleveland failed to win that Senator Vilas would then get the vote of Wisconsin.

THE Democrat carried New York in 1888, lost it in 1872, carried it in 1876, lost it in 1880, carried it in 1884, lost it in 1888. According to the regular order it must go Democratic again this year. It is the same way with Indiana—Republican in 1872, Democratic in 1876, Republican in 1880, Democratic in 1884, Republican in 1888.

THE report is again revived that Senator Sherman will resign his position in the Senate as soon as it can be arranged to make Charles Foster his successor. Mr. Sherman has just built a $200,000 mansion in Washington and on his retirement will write a book on what he knows about the statesmen and generals of his time.

THAT staunch Republican paper, the Columbus Dispatch, is not feeling exactly satisfied with the present outlook. In a leading editorial it says: "It is doubtful whether the Republican party will be able to elect its next candidate for president."

"This doubt is partly based upon the truth that a house divided against itself cannot stand."

THE Alliance Review is still quarreling with the Ohio Patriot over the latter's abuse of Stark county's congressional candidate, whom Editor Potts designates as "Old Man Morgan, the bulldozer." The Review's loyalty to its choice of candidates is all right, but what shall be said of its judgment when it contends that Mr. Morgan is the coming congressman?—Salem News (Rep.).

WE regret to observe that Ex-President Sefton appeared in the Council chamber on Monday evening, shaking the gaunt and hungry ghost of the dead Ripper in the faces of the Republican majority. This is said to account in part for the deplorable fact that the claim ordinance was defeated. The men who are deprived of their pay, and whose families need the necessities of life, are now cursing the authors of their misery with vigor and venom.

GEN. OATES of Alabama has returned from his canvass for another nomination to Washington. The General is going to be returned to the next Congress. In the present Congress he received 10,298, while his Republican contestant only polled 930. Hence his district is safe. In an interview on the Presidential outlook in Alabama Gen. Oates says the Democrats in Alabama are not disposed to commit themselves to either Cleveland or Hill at this time, and will probably send an uncommitted delegation to Chicago.

THE Rocky Mountain News, the organ of the Democratic party in Colorado, is organizing a bolt against Cleveland in case he is nominated by the Democratic convention. It suggests a novel plan for the concentration of the free silver men. Their plan is for the State conventions in the free silver States that meet after the National convention, to nominate electors and a State ticket, adopt a resolution that its electors, if successful, shall not vote for Cleveland, and shall cast their votes only for a candidate pledged to free coinage.

THERE is a big crop of Presidential sensations just now. Yesterday we had it that the New Yorkers were about to concentrate on John Sherman, in order to beat Harrison's nomination. Then a wire said, from Detroit to Chicago, that Blaine had finally consented to run. Now we get a report that Hill is about to withdraw, in favor of Ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney of New York, and then again we get word that with Ex-President Cleveland's consent, William F. Vilas and Don Dickinson are at work trying to secure for Chief Justice Fuller, the Democratic presidential nomination.

SUBLIMEST ANCIENT POEM.

The Book of Job Towers Like a Lofly Mountain Peak.

The sublimest poem of antiquity is impersonal, yet written in the Hebrew tongue, writes E. C. Steadman in the Century. The book of Job, the life-drama of the man of Uz, towers with no peak near it; its authorship lost, but its fable associated in mind with the post-Noachian age, the time when God discoursed with men and the stars hung low in the empyrean. It is both epic and dramatic, yet embodies the whole wisdom of the patriarchal race. Who composed it? Who carved the sphinx, or set the angles of the pyramids? The shadow of his name was taken, lest he should fall by pride, like Eubus. The narrative prelude to Job has the direct epic simplicity—a Cyclopean porch to the temple, but within are heaven, the angels, the plumed lord of evil, before the throne of a judicial God. The personages of the dialogue beyond are firmly distinguished. Elihu, Bildad, Jophar, Eliphaz—to whom the inspiration of the all-mighty gave understanding—and the smitten protagonist himself, majestic in ashes and desolation. Each outwits the other in grandeur of language, imagination, worship. Can there be a height above these lofty utterances? Yes; only in this poem has God answered out of the whirlwind, his voice made audible, as if an added range of hearing for a space enabled us to comprehend the reverberations of a superhuman tone. I speak not now of the motive, the inspiration of the symphonic masterpiece; it is still a mortal creation, though maintaining an impersonality so absolute as to confirm our senses of mystery and awe.

The following from a reliable exchange shows how the triplets, Protection, Trusts and Public Robbery are juggling along together and all getting rich:

"The sugar trust has now taken the full advantage given it by the McKinley bill, having bought off the opposition of Claus Spreckles. By cutting the price of sugar, which none but refiners use, and by raising the price of refined sugar, which everyone uses, the trust will net about $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 more than it has been making. The sugar trust will give up plenty of money for the Republican corruption fund this year."

THE enormous increase of local indebtedness created by the present legislature is creating much alarm throughout the state. The Cincinnati Times-Star, one of the leading Republican organs of Ohio, in a labored editorial says: "Ohio since the previous census has contracted a heavier debt of this kind than any other state in the union. In 1880 the aggregate municipal debt in Ohio was $38,906,606. The total for 1890 is $52,888,263, an increase of $14,981,657, or over thirty-seven per cent. This is plunging into debt ruinously, a regular rakes' progress. If it is not arrested the end will be speedy and disastrous."

TO BEAT CREDITORS.

THE DEFUNCT ONE PRICE CLOTHING CO., PRACTICED FRAUD.

So Decides Judge Taylor in the Common Pleas Court—About $15,000 Involved—The Case to be Appealed.

An important decision was handed down by Judge Taylor in Court room No. 1 this morning in which about $15,000 is involved. The case is that of the Gem Shirt company et al vs. Daniel, Moses and Eva Oppenheimer, A. J. Sunstein, A. W. Patrick and Oppenheimer and Kauffman. The suit grew out of the assignment of Dan and Ben Oppenheimer who ran an extensive clothing store in the Ohio House Block some years ago. The business was conducted on an elaborate and extensive plan and finally the men at the head of affairs were closed up on judgment notes given by them to the defendants in the aforesaid suit. A large number of creditors, about twenty in all, were left out and it looked as if they would have to lose their bills. Those to whom judgment notes were given were all relatives of the members of the firm and the balance of the creditors, headed by the Gem Shirt company, decided something was wrong and inaugurated an investigation and finally brought suit in Common Pleas court in which they charged that the clothing Co. had given these notes and allowed the store to be closed up for the purpose of fleeing the other creditors, who were not relatives, and that in two years they had paid the court and placed in a trust fund in the hands of a trustee, to be applied to the payment of the creditors.

The case was hotly contested in the January term of court, Clark and Ambler, Day, Lynch & Day and Miller & Pomeroy appearing for the plaintiffs and Baldwin & Shields for the defendants. The Judge took the evidence under consideration and this morning decided that the clothing company had assigned fraudulently to their relatives for the purpose of beating their creditors out of their bills and that the property should be placed in the hands of a trustee for the benefit of those creditors. The amount is about $15,000.

The attorneys for the defense gave notice that they would appeal the case to Circuit court and the Judge fixed the bond at $15,000.

An Alliance special says: George Richards, an employee of the Cleveland & Canton railroad company, was arrested and taken off his train yesterday, charged with embezzling money to the amount of $100 from Fred Kayler, proprietor of a restaurant at this place. In default of bail he was sent to jail to await preliminary hearing.

The Snyder-Albright Case Will Not Come Up

On Account of the Absence of E. M. Merrill.

AN IMPORTANT WITNESS WHOM IT IS ALLEGED

Has Seen Clandestine Meetings Between Banker Albright

AND MRS. SNYDER THE WIFE OF THE PLAINTIFF.

The Confession of Albright Still in the Hands of Attorney Baldwin—The Proceedings of Today.

The trial of the famous Snyder-Albright case was commenced this morning at 10:30 o'clock in Court Room No. 2, before Judge Taylor. The case is exciting great interest on account of the large amount involved and the sensational features promised.

As is well known F. Edward Snyder commenced suit asking to recover $30,000 on a promissory note alleged to have been given by Peter G. Albright at ten days sight. All of the parties in the case reside in Massillon, but are well-known in Canton. Mr. Snyder is a tinner while Mr. Albright is a prominent banker. The petition filed in common pleas court was very brief, simply asking for judgment on the promissory note in the sum named. The case has been set for trial a number of times, but each time has been postponed for different reasons.

It is expected there will be many sensational developments during the trial. It is openly charged here that it will be shown that the note was given by Albright on account of the relations existing between Mrs. Snyder and himself. That such a state of facts exist is denied by Mr. Albright, who says the note is a forgery and denounces the whole affair as a black-mailing scheme.

Sheriff Kridler yesterday subpoenaed the following witnesses for the plaintiff: J. H. Hunt, Jos. Coleman, W. F. Ricka, L. M. Taggart, S. A. Conrad, Charles Snyder, George Snyder, Mrs. Amelia Snyder, E. Edward Snyder, Perry Merrill, Mrs. Perry Merrill, Jacob Finkell, H. D. Wilson, J. T. Brown and Aaron Bowman.

The following jurors have been summoned in the case: Samuel Willis, H. A. Wise, M. P. Fry, Geo. A. Barnes, G. W. Yobe, George Shearer, H. D. McGraw, Jos. Weaver and Ferd Herbruck, of Canton; Peter Pierson and J. P. Shillig of Louisville; J. A. Cliff of Osnaburg; Henry Ream of Plain township; R. Robertson of Marlboro; Jas. Culbertson and Thos. Brosius of Alliance.

There was some delay this morning on account of the nonarrival of certain witnesses. Mr. George E. Baldwin stated that Perry Merrill of Massillon was a very important witness and he did not desire to commence the trial of the case until he was in court. He stated a subpoena had been left at his house but he had not been home since Saturday, having evidently heard he was to be summoned.

The jurors were called and took their places in the box, eleven of those summoned being present. It was ascertained that several of them had formed an opinion and it will probably be necessary to issue a special venire. Attorney Baldwin stated that he expected to have the absent witness, Perry Merrill, present this afternoon and consequently an adjournment was taken until 1:30 o'clock.

There were people in the court room this morning who expressed the opinion the case would never be tried. Mr. Baldwin said Merrill was a very important witness and in case he is not found a motion for a continuance will probably be made.

George E. Baldwin and R. H. Folger appeared this morning for the plaintiff and Wm. R. Day, E. C. Willson and R. W. McCaughey for the defendant. Mr. Albright was in court and occupied a seat beside his attorneys. Mr. Snyder was also present and had a long consultation with Attorney Baldwin.

Many experts will be called during the trial to identify the signature of Banker Albright. Those who have seen it, say they are positive the note was signed by Albright. The plaintiff has two experts from Chicago in attendance, who will testify in the case. There is great interest in the trial and at the opening of court this afternoon the room will be crowded.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Court opened this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Judge Taylor stated that he understood the plaintiff was preparing a written motion for a continuance and nothing could be done until it was presented. Judge Day spoke up and said he should oppose anything of that kind.

Nothing was done at 3 o'clock as Attorney Baldwin did not appear with his motion for a continuance. At this hour Judge Taylor began reading of waiting and instructed the sheriff to call Mr. Baldwin. The attorney soon put in an appearance and submitted his motion to Judge Day who commenced an examination of same.

It is learned the reason a continuance is asked for is on account of the absence of E. M. Merrill of Massillon, whom it is alleged, left when he heard he was to be subpoenaed and that he is a very important witness.

It is claimed in the affidavit that Merrill watched Mrs. Snyder on many occasions and saw her go to Albright's house. After she entered, the door would be closed by Albright, the curtains pulled down and the house darkened. When she came out Albright would come to the door and look up and down to see if anyone was watching her. Witness had also seen Albright go to Mrs. Snyder's home on many occasions.

It is learned that George E. Baldwin still has the alleged confession of Mr. Albright in which he admits he was intimate with Mrs. Snyder and gave the note on account of this alleged intimacy.

Attorney Baldwin urged the court to pass the case until Merrill could be found. He said they had used all diligence to get the witness and did not suppose he would leave Massillon. The witness went away without telling his family where he intended to go.

Judge Day opposed the passing of the case.

Judge Taylor in deciding said he thought the plaintiff had used due diligence in trying to get the witness. He was of the opinion that witness should be punished for not appearing and said the case would have to be tried if it remained on the docket.

As the NEWS-DEMOCRAT went to press Judge Taylor granted a postponement of the trial until Monday next at 1 o'clock.

I was Disgraced

With the learned doctors after swallowing their costly medicine in vain for over a year, I was finally cured by the use of the medicine, and recently a relative has been greatly relieved by its use. I therefore beg leave to place more emphasis upon the opinion of this remedial agent, expressed by me some ten years ago.

Rev. J. P. Arnold, Camden, Tenn, makes the following statement: "For eight years I suffered from Bright's disease of the kidneys. The torture I endured no tongue can tell. One day I was laid up with an abscess, which discharged pus for twenty months. The best doctors in the country attended me, but could give no relief. Two abscesses were run out constantly, and in fact, they only caused me after I began to use Warner's Safe Cure, which I am pleased to say, restored me to perfect health."

Rev. S. B. Bell, D. D., formerly pastor of First Presbyterian church, Kansas City, Mo., asserts: "I have used Warner's Safe Cure in many cases of incurable Bright's disease of the kidneys. Its virtues should be known by all the world."

Rev. William C. Powers, Greenwood, S. C., makes the following graphic assertion: "My wife suffered for years from an abscess of the kidney, and was unable to do any work. She was treated by the best physicians, but without any perceptible improvement. She was completely restored to health by the use of Warner's Safe Cure."

Can you not see that such earnest and outspoken statements as the above come from the heart, that they are sincere, and that they are made because these are matters of the Gospel which REVEAL themselves to all who seek? And does it not show how valuable this great cure becomes to those who are in need?

VARNISH AND FEATHERS.

A Vigilance Committee Prepared to Decorate an Offensive Swell.

Residents in the vicinity of Mahoning street have been much excited the past few days over the actions of some unknown villain who has been obnoxious upon the streets in the evening. He is described as being a man with a long white beard, dressed in a silk hat and otherwise rigged out in the height of fashion. His custom was to appear upon the streets and insult little girls with indecencies of the most vicious character and seek to induce them to go with him. He carried on his disgraceful actions for several nights and on Friday night so frightened a nine year old daughter of Mr. William Thomas, at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Mahoning streets, that she was taken with hysterics and remained in a hysterical condition all night. The police were notified but they failed to find the culprit, and Saturday night a vigilance committee was organized and armed with a bucket of varnish and a sack of feathers a large squad of citizens made a search all over that portion of the city. Fortunately for the victim he was not found, or he would have been handled rather roughly, and decorated most gorgeously with the varnish and feathers.

A MAN KILLED.

The Coroner Summoned to North Lawrence This Afternoon.

Death came to a man at North Lawrence this afternoon on the Ft. Wayne railroad. No particulars have been received concerning the accident, and the name of the victim could not be ascertained up to the time of going to press. A telegram from Superintendent A. B. Starr at Pittsburg was received by Coroner Stark, Ohio, more or less stating that a man had been killed, and he should report at North Lawrence to hold an inquest. The coroner, accompanied by a NEWS-DEMOCRAT reporter, left at once for the scene of the accident.

A special dispatch received just before going to press stated that the man killed was Abraham Davis, a citizen about sixty years of age.

For two years I suffered with kidney, liver and bladder disease in its worst form. Physicians said my case was hopeless. My liver refused to act and my stomach would not digest any food. Swamp Root entirely cured me.

Death of Miss Helena Lawler.

Miss Helena Lawler a sister-in-law of Mr. John Duffy of this city, died at Terre Haute, Ind., Tuesday morning. The remains will be brought here on the 4:30 train this evening for burial. The funeral services will be held at St. John's Catholic church Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

FROM THE HEART.

That Is the Way Ministers Speak.

A Most Wonderful Army of Outspoken Ministers of the Gospel.

No class of people in the community have a deeper interest in the welfare of the people than Ministers of the Gospel. They are brought close to the members of their congregation, study their wants, and are consulted on all subjects. Of late years, pastors are becoming well-versed in those things which contribute to the physical as well as the spiritual comfort of their people. Many pastors are also physicians, and all seek earnestly for those things which they believe to be worthy and valuable.

Rev. S. P. Smith, Marlborough, Mass.: "For years I suffered from complications of the liver, which caused nervousness, and finally led to the liver fever. I was attended by a skillful physician, but still I suffered periodical bilious attacks and intense pain from the formation of gall-stones. I finally was obliged to undergo my pastoral work, when, after a thorough treatment with a most wonderful cure, I was entirely restored to health and was able to work harder than ever. My appetite returned, my digestion was perfect, and I feel that I owe my restoration entirely to Warner's Safe Cure. I take pleasure in recommending it as a great remedy for all diseases of the liver."

Rev. A. H. Harvey, D. D., Washington, D. C.: "I take pleasure in stating that I have for many years been acquainted with the well known Warner's Safe Cure, and with its remarkable curative efficiency in obtaining and so-called incurable cases of Bright's disease in this city. In some of these cases, which seemed in the last stages, and when all other means given up by the practitioners of both schools, the speedy change wrought by this remedy seemed but little less than miraculous. I am convinced that for the same disease, in its latest stage, no remedy more powerful can be held for one moment in comparison with this."

Rev. Benjamin Hall, New Castle, Westchester Co., N. Y.: "I suffered for a long time from malaria. I ran down in weight 30 pounds, could not sleep, and was unable to perform any of my pastoral duties. I consulted one of the best pathologists in the City of New York who found my fluids badly impregnated with albumen mucosus, with hyaline casts abundant. I commenced Warner's Safe Cure, and began to mend rapidly. My back ceased to ache, the malarial symptoms disappeared, and I now weigh more than ever before. After my recovery I had another abscess of the liver, which was cured by the use of Warner's Safe Cure, and I am now in the most robust of health. The doctor said the case was of the most dangerous character, and that I had had a very narrow escape."

Rev. Henry C. Westwood, D. D., Providence, R. I., declares: "Two years ago I used Warner's Safe Cure and derived so much benefit from it that I was led to voluntarily write a testimonial in its favor. Since that time I have been a constant user of the medicine, and recently a relative has been greatly relieved by its use. I therefore beg leave to place more emphasis upon the opinion of this remedial agent, expressed by me some ten years ago."

Rev. J. P. Arnold, Camden, Tenn, makes the following statement: "For eight years I suffered from Bright's disease of the kidneys. The torture I endured no tongue can tell. One day I was laid up with an abscess, which discharged pus for twenty months. The best doctors in the country attended me, but could give no relief. She was treated by the best physicians, but without any perceptible improvement. She was completely restored to health by the use of Warner's Safe Cure."
